Dear Stephen,

I would like to thank you for your consulting services over the last few months as Bank West formally introduced our CondoFlex Maintenance Financing loan offering. Your expertise and experience in the condominium industry were invaluable to us. We appreciated your professionalism and candor while assisting us during the product launch.

I look forward to utilizing your services again and would certainly recommend you to anyone needing information or services in the condominium sector.

Thank you again.

Sincerely,

Eric Bloomquist
Business Development Manager
